

Chef Gregory says: Add some sizzle to your summertime cooking

Last year I had the great pleasure of serving one of my favorite recipes at the Phoenix Home & Garden magazine's Palette of Homes Tour that annually benefits Free Arts of Arizona. My wife and son Alex say summertime is just the right time for my Pulled Pork Sandwich with Southwest Coleslaw, so I thought I'd share it with you. It's got just a hint of spice to offset the cool crunch. And, if it sounds like you layer it together in one sandwich – you're absolutely right! I hope you'll try it.

I can't believe this month marks my fourth anniversary at Paradise Bakery and Café. It seem like just yesterday I joined this wonderful family. And, as a loyal customer, you're part of our family, too. So, starting next month, I'm capturing a small space in each eblast to share some Conversations with Chef Gregory. It also will link to my blog. I look forward to "talking" with you. After all, you're family now. Click here for recipe.

Before the bell rings, are you already school dazed? Let Paradise help

- Grab lunch at one of our 75 locations while doing your back to school shopping. Remember, PB&C has kid-friendly meals.
- Cater fresh sandwiches or salads for school club functions. Lots of school-related activities already are underway even though classes haven't started.
- Treat your child's new teacher with a custom-decorated giant cookie. Lots more fun than an apple.

What do they say about "all work and no play"?

Labor Day is just around the corner and that's the perfect excuse for a picnic. Let Paradise package up a great holiday weekend picnic with cold salads, delicious sandwiches and hordes of our World Famous Chippers. You can knock 'em back so fast the ants won't even get a chance to enjoy the just-out-of-the-oven aroma. We also can include our easy-pour box of iced tea or lemonade. What a wonderful way to wind down the summer. You must supply the blanket, folding chairs and ahhhhs, of course.

We think it's a "best seller." You'll find this inspiration book available on request in all stores August 1. P.S. The plot's really sweet!
